Conference Program

Welcome to the Ontario Healthy Schools Coalition annual conference.

The theme for this year's event is "Shaping Success: Healthy Staff, Healthy Students".

Tuesday, May 14th

8:00am Registration, Continental Breakfast, and Visit Displays

9:00 am Opening Greetings

9:20 am Keynote Presentation

Dr. Catherine Cavanagh will bring her charm and wit to the conference with her presentation on hospitable school cultures. She practices her philosophy as a teacher in the Catholic District School Board of Eastern Ontario. She believes that self-care, inclusion, and solidarity at all levels of education are necessary for the development of healthy school cultures. Her focus on hospitality, imagination, and strong relationships in everyday work can help move us along the path toward wellbeing in our schools. Dr. Cavanagh holds degrees in mathematics, education, theology and ministry, and has focused her most recent studies on hospitality and diversity in school settings.

10:20 am Break and Visit Displays

10:40 am Wellness Activity

Self-compassion is important for our overall wellbeing. It is associated with increased motivation, greater emotional resilience; it encourages a more accurate self-concept and helps build positive healthy relationships. Practicing 2-3 minutes of self-compassion on a daily basis is a great way to build our own resilience. Join our team in practicing these quick easy to do activities throughout our conference.

11:15 am Breakout Session A

	Session Title	Presenter(s)		Workshop Description
A-1	Feed All Four	Shaun Vaillancourt (Teacher) and The Healthy Active Team of Huntsville P.S.	Huntsville Public School Trillium Lakelands District School Board	Follow Huntsville Public Schools journey of creating a student-lead Healthy Active Team to promote student well-being and drive academic achievement through the adoption of Feed All Four.
A-2	Wellness in the Digital Age	Laura Libralato	OECTA Associate Member	Discover why slowing down, taking charge of your attention, and minimizing distraction will lead to a happier, healthier and less stressed mind and body. Discover new-found techniques to help build a stronger sense of self for both you and your students. Hone your mind to integrate, navigate and disengage in an effort to reboot holistically. Press pause to restore, reclaim and reignite.
A-3	Teacher and Student Mental Health: Let's Start at the Beginning	Susan Rodger, Richelle Bird, Jasprit Chuckal, Robyn Masters	Western University	Teaching pre-service teachers about mental health and well-being can build a foundation for promoting healthy schools and workplaces. We will share and discuss ideas, resources and evaluation results from a mandatory course on the topic of mental health literacy.
A-4	Creating a Culture of Caring	Mary Bradford, Sarah Sweiger, RN and Patrick Brophy	Assumption College School and the Brant County Health Unit	Assumption College School in Brantford, Ontario, has worked to develop a culture of caring throughout their community, in order to promote student well-being and support student achievement. Embedded with evidence-informed strategies and take-away resources, the presentation will seek to empower other schools to see the potential within their buildings to foster mentally healthy schools.
